14. The prospective purchaser is considered to have full knowledge thereof and authorises the auctioneer or any duly authorised partner or employee of David Plaister Limited as the prospective purchasers agents to sign the memorandum of contract incorporating all such matters at or after the auction.
15. The prospective purchaser may in writing only at any time up to the commencement of the auction in which the particular Lot is to be sold withdraw the Auctioneer's authority to bid. 18. Once delivered to the Auctioneer the authority to bid is binding on the prospective purchaser up to 10.00pm on the day on which the particular Lot is auctioned. This is to allow for the possibility of a Vendor agreeing to sell post auction where the bidding has not reached the reserve.

22. Should the prospective purchaser's bid be successful, the remainder of the 10% deposit becomes payable on the night of the auction, before contracts are signed, with the remaining balance to be paid upon completion 28 days later. Where the particular Lot is purchased below the maximum bid figure the balance of the deposit will be considered as an additional deposit towards the purchase price.
23. Should the prospective purchaser's bid be unsuccessful, the amount of *£6,200.00 (Six Thousand, Two Hundred Pounds) will be transferred back to their bank account. The prospective purchaser must provide David Plaister Ltd their account details should this be the case.
24. In the event of a contract the deposit monies will be applied so far as necessary to meet the requirement for a 10% or 5% deposit (whichever is applicable) subject to a minimum of *£5,000.00 per Lot, plus the Buyer's Premium or Reservation Fee (whichever is applicable), however if monies are received over the relevant deposit amount, this will result in the purchaser paying a lesser sum on completion.

26. The Auctioneer will make no charge to a prospective purchaser for this service and will accept no liability whatsoever for any bid not being made on behalf of the prospective purchaser whether through lack of clarity of instructions or for any other reason whatsoever.
